LIFE IN MARCH, 1938

When FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT was President and JOHN N. GARNER was Vice-President, a house cost $6420.00.
Making ends meet was a full time job with an average yearly income of just $1202.00.
Milk cost only $0.25 a half-gallon, 10 Lbs. of potatoes cost $0.21 and $0.37 would bring home the bacon.
Wouldn't you like to buy a loaf of bread for the 1938 price of $0.09?

KHS Class of 1955 holds reunion at Elks Club

KENDALLVILLE — A total of 68 people attended the 40th anniversary of the Class of 1955 of Kendallville High School July 29 in the Elks Club in Kendallville. Thirty of the 69 original members of the class attended along with four teachers and their spouses. During the social hour guests visited with Royal and Virginia Tritch.

Ray Scott gave the welcome, Duane Hanes gave the invocation and deceased classmates, John Moses, Bob Grubb and Marjorie (Leamon) Lynch, who died since the last reunion, were remembered.

The committee in charge of planning the reunion was composed of Duane Axel, chairman; Ann (Stoeckley) Haffner, Jackie (Caldwell) Bartlett, Duane Hanes, Rae (Pray) Wright, Craig Miller and Ray Scott.

Jim Bartlett was thanked for assisting with the transportation of the Tritches from the Shepherd of the Hill nursing home where they reside to the reunion.

Craig Miller was master of ceremonies and he recognized class officers: Ray Scott, president; Craig Miller, vice president; Nelda (Berkes) Hoffman, secretary; and Carol (Eshelman) Austin, treasurer.

Teachers who were present, Clyde and Janice Copeland, Chet and Mary Curry, Dale and Helen

Schinbeckler and Kahrl and Margaret Metz, were also recognized.

Classmates introduced themselves and their guests and related information about their families and activities since the last reunion.

Judy (Jacobs) Young of Superior, Wis., traveled the farthest. Doyne Perkins, with 12, had the most grandchildren; Jim Springer had the youngest child, age 20, and Bryant, Enid (Aungst) Baxter, Jackie (Caldwell) Bartlett and Pat (Anderson) Chilcote. In the third row are Nancy Ann (Patterson) Collins, Duane Axel, Ann (Stoeckley) Hoffman, David Merkling, Judy (Jacobs) Young, Terry Kurtz, Craig Miller, Bob Rittermeyer, William Heign, Roberta (Gehring) Frederick, Max Strater, Marilyn (Adams) Schick, Ray Scott and Bob Moore.

Bill Heign had been retired the longest — four years.

Ray Scott presided over the business meeting. It was decided to hold the next reunion on July 29, 2000.

BACCALAUREATE TO BE SUNDAY

"Wake Up and Live" will be the theme of the address which the Reverend David Livengood will present to the graduating seniors at the baccalaureate services in the high school auditorium Sunday evening at 8:00 p.m.

The program is as follows:

Senior Class Processional
"Land of Hope and Glory" . . Choir
Invocation Rev. Echols
Response Choir
"But the Lord is Mindful of His Own" Choir
Address Rev. Livengood
"Eternal Life" Choir
Benediction Rev. Echols
Response Choir

The music for baccalaureate will be under the direction of Miss Marian Fenstermacher, supervisor of vocal music.

16 TOP 90% AVERAGE

Sixteen seniors have maintained a scholastic average of 90% or above for the years they have been in high school, according to Mr. Tritch, principal. These averages are not final, for they include only semesters already completed--3½ years for four-year seniors and 4 years for mid-term students.

AWARDS DAY SET FOR MAY 27

Merit auditorium will be held next Friday, May 27, at 2:00. Report cards will be issued after the auditorium program.

SENIORS TO PRESENT PROGRAM

The auditorium program this afternoon will be in charge of the graduating seniors of 1955.

Y-TEEN HOLD LAST MEETINGS

A picnic at Pokagon was the main event of the Y-Teen meeting on April 26. After a picnic supper, the girls gathered on the beach for singing which was led by Martha Crowell and Sandra Herald. The devotions were given by Ruby Barger. Mrs. Myron Hutchins then whistled bird calls. The meeting closed with "Follow the Glean" and "Taps."

The highlights of the May 10 Y-Teen meeting were the installation of new officers, awarding of pins and bracelets, and the senior farewell. The new officers installed were Marilyn Dungan, president; Jane Platner, vice-president; Barbara Hoffelder, secretary; Karen Leighty, treasurer; Beverly Barrows, social; Jo Price, program; Linda Lee, ways and means; JoAnn Hanes, publicity; Virginia Stewart, keeper of points; Diana Johnson, service.

Y-Teen pins were awarded to Jo Price, Linda Lee, Ann Foor, Pat Anderson, Jane Platner, Nancy Reick, Pat Wymer, Martha Crowell, Rebecca Baird, Prudence Rensberger, Joyce Watson, Barbara Gehring, Marcia Schweitzer, Janet Friskney, Jean Wright, Marietta Mory, Janice Schuman, Sharon Holden, Diane Kmpel, Carolyn Kleiman, and Sharon Castator.

Bracelets were given to Judy Jacobs, Sandra Herald, Marilyn Adams, Carol Eshelman, Ann Stoeckley, Nancy Patterson, Karen Leighty, Ruby Barger, Ann Wehmeyer, Jean Kammerer, and Dianne Ihrie.

The senior recognition for two years was Rebecca Baird, Sharon Clay, and Joyce Watson; for three years, Marilyn Adams, Enid Aungst, Ruby Barger, Nelda Berkes, Carol Eshelman, Carol Ewell, Virginia Freed, Kay Friskney, Dianne Ihrie, Judy Jacobs, Jean Kammerer, Shirley Mulholland, Rae Pray, Marcia Ruderman, Ann Stoeckley, Anne Wright, Nancy Patterson, Mary Lash, Pat Anderson, Marjorie Forker, and Pat Wymer.

The meeting closed with "Follow the Glean" and "Taps."

Y-TEEN DANCE SCHEDULED

"Younger than Springtime" is the theme which the Y-Teen cabinet has selected for the Y-Teen dance which will be held Thursday night, May 26.

Although decorations have not been completely outlined, the plan is to have a park in springtime.

MELODY MANOR IS SETTING FOR JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

A Southern plantation, Melody Manor, was reproduced in the little gym for the setting of the junior-senior banquet May 6. The juniors, under the direction of their sponsor, Miss Power, brought a touch of the deep South into the North with the room and table decorations, the tables being centered with wishing wells and nutcups representing buckets.

The ham dinner was prepared under the supervision of Miss Vardaman and was served by several sophomore girls. During the dinner, favors were given to everyone present, lipstick mirrors to the girls and ballpoint pens engraved with the occasion and the date to the boys.

The program, which was emceed by Harold Riehm, was as follows:

"Welcome, You All, to Melody Manor".....Dennis Butterbaugh
 "Mighty Glad to be Here".Ray Scott
 "There Are Such Things" and
 "Summertime"...Jr. Girls' Chorus
 Marimba Solo.....Ann Foor
 Dance....Martha Crowell, Sara McKibbin, and Sharon Shoultz
 "That's What I like About the South".....Mr. Porter Crowell

 "I've Got Plenty of Nuttin'" and
 "Old Man River".Jr. Boys Chorus
 "Dixie Danny".....Girls' trio
 "It's a Grand Night for Singing".
 Led. by Mr. Tritch

TEA GIVEN FOR SENIOR GIRLS

The senior girls were entertained at a tea given in their honor by the Business and Professional Women's Club Sunday, May 15.

Miss Margaretta Horner, a Fort Wayne Y.W.C.A. worker, who last summer took a trip to Europe where she stayed in Holland with a Dutch family, was the main speaker. Miss Horner related some of her very interesting experiences to the group.

Miss Barbara Miller acted as mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Milton Shoultz, president of the club, welcomed the girls followed by a marimba solo by Ann Foor.

Tea was poured by Mrs. Shoultz and Mrs. Mallon.

THESPIAN OFFICERS ELECTED

Thespian officers were elected at the Thespian meeting Wednesday May 11. Harold Richm was chosen as president; Sharon Hansen, vice-president; Sara McKibbin, secretary; Kay Downing, treasurer; Dick Crubb, production manager; and Elizabeth Miller, clerk.

The Thespian party and installation of officers will be held next Wednesday evening. At this time Carolyn Kleiman, Kay Downing, Ann Fear, and Sylvia Muesing will be admitted to membership.

PLAYS GIVEN FOR DRAMATICS CLUBS

"Antic Spring" and "The Purple Door Knob" have been presented at the last two Wig & Paint and Thespian meetings.

"Antic Spring" was the feature of the May 3 meeting. The play, which had been given originally for speech class, included Ann Stockley, Tom Lewis, Dave Hedges, Nancy Drerup, Colette Chaudoin, and Jack Lewis.

"The Purple Door Knob" was given Tuesday evening and the characters were portrayed by Jean Wright, Sharon Hansen, and Carolyn Kleiman. At this meeting Sara McKibbin also gave a reading.

DRAMATICS CLUBS BUY CLEANER

The Thespians and Wig & Paint members have voted to purchase a vacuum cleaner to aid in keeping the stage and curtains free from much dust.

A committee, composed of Marcia Ruderman and Joyce Watson, investigated the various cleaners and it was decided that a tank-type Hoover with a long wand and attachments should be purchased. This sweeper was delivered Tuesday, according to Miss Robertson.

RHODES ELECTED G.A.A. PRESIDENT

Connie Rhodes was elected as president of the G.A.A. at the G. A. A. picnic Monday evening. Other officers include Jean Brown, vice-president; Nancy Cazier, treasurer; and Ruth Ihrie, sports chairman.

After the election of officers awards were given. Barbara Burger, Rebecca Walter, Linda Bostwick, Caroline Miller, Nancy Wymer, and Kay Downing had earned enough points for the G.A.A. pin. Joyce Coffey received her numerals and Marjorie Forker and Bonnie Bodenhafer received senior awards, leather purses marked with G.A.A.

EDDLEMAN SPEAKS AT K-KLUB BANQUET; AWARDS MADE

Dike Eddleman was the guest speaker at the K-Klub's annual spring banquet held at the Publix Cafe last Wednesday night. After the dinner, Dike spoke to K-Klubbers, fathers, and other guests about the many interesting events in his athletic career. Dike played high school ball at Centralia, Illinois, when they were state champs. At the University of Illinois he won 11 letters in sports and played football when they won in the Rose Bowl. In 1948 he competed in the Olympics and finished second in the high jump.

The following senior boys were awarded honor jackets: Duane Axel, Larry Coffel, Carroll Gould, Bill Heign, Terry Kurtz, Craig Miller, and John Moses.

Other awards were won by the following: basketball - - Axel, Brown, Fifer, Gould, Heign, Kurtz, Miller, Mills, Moses, Reidenbach; baseball - - Axel, Brown, Coffel, Fifer, Heign, Miller, Moses, Pankop; track - - Axel, Brown, Evers, Fifer, Gould, Hall, Heign, B. Leamen, Moses, Sherck.

ELKS BANQUET HELD FOR LETTERMEN

John Jordan, head basketball coach at Notre Dame, was the main speaker at the annual Elks banquet in honor of the K.H.S. lettermen.

John Moses was awarded the Elks scholarship for good sportsmanship both in sports and out. This scholarship may be used at any college of the recipient's choice.

Special guests at the banquet included Frank (Tack) Prentice, 1927 Gimbel award winner, and Jim Henry, 1955 Trester award winner.

GOSSIP BRIEFS

by Joan & Barb
Some of the couples that went to the banquet were late in arriving at the parties. Know why, Dave?.....why has Judy J. been so happy lately? Could a certain Amos H. be the reason?....We hear that Beaver got some dandy behind-the-scenes shots up at Pkagon!.. K'ville was well represented at the Huntertown prom with Nancy P., Kathy S., and Joann H. to make a good impression.....Nancy Reick and Keith H. have been seeing quite a lot of each other recently. How's the Garrett Drive-In? Bye now till next fall!

The SPOTLIGHT is published by the members of the Journalism class of Kendallville High School. The subscription rate for the school year is 50¢ in Kendallville and 65¢ by mail. Single copies are 10¢ per copy.

A SENIOR REMINISCES

Here we are--seniors--ready to graduate and go out into the world on our own. These last four years have gone so fast it seems impossible to believe that it is time for us to graduate.

I remember our freshman year. Everybody was really excited about being in high school.. We put on a very nice program for our parents. This program, which consisted of slides showing us in classes and extra-curricular activities, was directed by Miss Eminger, our sponsor.

As we became sophomores, we really felt we were growing up! One important change was our move to the senior study hall. With Mr. Metz as our sponsor, we ordered our class sweaters, which were grey with white "K"'s outlined in navy blue. The '55 we wore on our sleeve seemed so far away! Many of the girls joined Y-Tecns and G.A.A. while many of the boys were interested in sports or FFA. Both boys and girls joined Wig & Paint, hoping soon to become members of National Thespians. Our class was well represented in every activity in school.

Then came the big year! We were juniors! We had so much fun that year in our class work, at our parties and after-game dances and many other activities. Every member worked hard selling magazine subscriptions and our class has the highest selling record so far. After magazine subscriptions were over with, we ordered our class rings and finally they came with the beginning of the second semester came the beginning of thinking about and working for the junior-senior banquet. We chose to entertain the seniors at a beautiful sidewalk cafe in gay Paree. Many of us worked hard and long, painting, making nutcups and flowers, and decorating the gym. But all of this would not have been possible without the long and untiring hours spent by our sponsor, Miss Power.

Then we were seniors. At first none of us felt any different, but as we began a whirl of activities, we realized what was happening. We ordered our name cards and our announcements, we had our senior pictures taken at Ft. Wayne and we were measured for our caps and gowns. The yearbook staff worked hard taking pictures and preparing copy to meet their deadline. We have worked hard in our classes and activities trying, as other classes before us have done, to make our class the best class ever to graduate from K.H.S.

This year we were entertained by the juniors at the luxurious Meldy Manor in the South. Amid the parties and banquets given for us, we finally began to realize that in the not-too-distant future we would be leaving K.H.S. for good.

In another short week, baccalaureate, the senior picnic, and commencement will be memories and we, the class of 1955, will be out on our own, but we can never forget our classes, our teachers, the parties, dances, sports events and all the wonderful times we had while students here at K.H.S.

BAND GIVES CONCERT

The K.H.S. band held its annual formal concert under the direction of Clyde Copeland, which was given May 9 in the high school auditorium. The evening program consisted of the following:

Atlantic Seaboard, March Grundman
Fin, Overture.....Frankiser
Haskell's Rascals.....Yoder
Jim May, John Tritch, Kent Thrie
Persian Carnival.....Barnes
Belle of the Ball.....Anderson
Selections from "Brigadoon". Loewe
Blues in the Band.....Baroni
Soliloquy for Trumpet...Morrissey
Jean Wright, soloist
The Harmonica Player of New Orleans.....Miller

Another feature of the program was the presentation of band "K's" to 14 members who had earned the highest number of points during the school year. Honored were Jean Brown, Mary Alice Feller, Bob Wagner, Nelda Berkes, Jane Autenrieth, Maynard Gillispie, Dale Hansen, James May, Rae Pray, Nancy Schlichtenmyer, Marcia Schweitzer, June Wade, Mary Lou Wilson, and Jean Wright.

Special award pins went to James May, captain of the band, and Rae Pray, student director.

BAND PARENTS ELECT

Election of officers for 1955-56 was the main feature of the final Band Parents meeting of the year, held May 9 in the kindergarten room.

Johnston Craig was elected president, with Vern Schweitzer, vice-president; Luella Sutton, secretary; and Eugene Atz, treasurer.

It was decided to purchase six steel cabinets for band instruments storage.

Following the meeting, a formal band concert was presented in the auditorium, for the public.

PICNIC FOR FFA

FFA will have a picnic next Thursday, May 26, from 12:00-2:00.

G.E.D. TEST TAKEN BY SENIORS

The General Education Development test was given April 27 to all K.H.S. seniors, one part of the test to each senior, as it was given to seniors in 1,000 other schools. By determining the ratings made by these seniors throughout the United States, the test could be rated for its accuracy and its need for revision.

CLASS PROPHECY

"Just think, Judy! Who would have thought when we graduated from Kendallville High School ten years ago that today we would be sitting in the exclusive Hall Club thinking about our classmates? I wonder what all of them are doing today."

"I don't know about some of the others, Jean, but as I was looking at the menu I noticed that Seward Hall is the owner of this beautiful new building which was designed by the eminent architect, Craig Miller. Say, isn't that dance music wonderful? Oh look, the orchestra is being conducted by Bob Grubb, and the featured drummer is Jim May."

"Here comes the head waiter now, Judy. Why, doesn't that look like Carson Grubb? Why, my goodness, it is!"

"Hi, Carson, do you remember us? We have just been talking about some of our classmates. Have you seen any of them lately?"

"Well, as a matter of fact, I see several of them every day. The barber shop in the hotel across the street is run by Carroll Gould and Terry Kurtz, and Kay Friskney operates the beauty parlor right beside it. Virginia Freed also works here as a waitress. I also see quite a bit of Ray, Tom, and Duane, who are some of my regular customers. They are the top executives at Scott, Jones, and Axel Corporation. Well, what has been going on around Kendallville?"

"Jean and I own the exclusive J & J dress shop, and we have just returned from a buying trip to Paris. Several of the girls come into our shop to buy their clothes. Mrs. Herbert Hoffman, who was Nelda Berkes before her marriage, always selects her clothes at our shop, not only for herself but also for her small daughter. In our front offices we employ Sharon Clay, Pat Wymer, and Barbara Kline, who are very efficient secretaries. Dianne Etric and Jeannine Davis are two of our top models. The interior decoration, which is done as a luxurious penthouse, was done by Carol Eshelman Needham, Virginia Carteaux, Mary Crofoot, and Burnice Combs."

"Charlie Hampshire and Duane Hanes operate a combination filling station and TV shop which covers one complete block."

"John Moses is now coach of the famous Kendallville Comets, and he is training his five sons to be star basketball players."

"Well, Carson, I talked with Rae Pray just before we left Kendallville and she told me she is now head of the home economics department at K. H. S. and that Marilyn Adams and Nancy Patterson are elementary teachers there. Bonnie Bodenhafer and Marjorie Forker are in charge of the girls' athletic department and Enid Aungst is an excellent English teacher at K.H.S. Oh yes, Bob Rittermeyer is now the principal of senior high, and Carol Ewell is his secretary."

"Oh, by the way, Jean, I received a newspaper from Kendallville and was quite surprised to see that Bill Heigh is the editor of the paper. As I was reading the advertisements, I was surprised to see that several of our classmates are wealthy merchants. I noticed that Max Strater owns a large chain of ice cream stores and that Caryl Kline owns all the A & P stores in the country."

"Jerry Springer is also in the food store business, but he just specializes in super markets. Oh yes, Doyne Perkins is doing very well operating his 5 by 5 foot popcorn stand."

"Merkling's Beach, owned and operated by Dave Merkling, is now a fabulous luxury resort. Bob Moore is now owner and general manager of the Moore Milk-ateria."

"Say, whatever happened to some of the girls in our class? There were quite a few that were engaged, weren't they?"

"Well, Carson, all of them are married now and are raising families. Let's see, there were Anne Wright, Shirley Mulholland, Pat Anderson, Rebecca Baird, Jackie Caldwell, Patricia Hazelton, Mary Lash, Hope Ann Bert, Edith Combs, and Marjorie Leamon. And remember, Ann W. Bowers, Rachel B. Marti, and Marjorie R. Smith were

JUNIOR SPOTLIGHT

Vol. 22 No. 12

Kendallville, Indiana

May 20, 1955

Adj. 6

First rating in the bicycle skill test in our room went to Milo Weingart. Second ratings went to Ricky Moran, David Temple, Mike Kane, and Sue Ann Young. Robert Riehm, Bill Diggins, and Sharon Franklin were given third ratings.

In the May Festival our theme was "Songland People." Sandra Eddy recited the poem "America for Me."

--Judy Davis & Jill Jollief

6-1

We are getting ready for exams. In science we are studying saving the soil. In arithmetic we are doing Roman numerals.

Mr. Broderick, Harold Gray, Dick Blue, and Diana Holden have May birthdays.

6-2

This month birthdays are celebrated by Sandra Wiemer, Sally Palmer, Janet Summers, Bart Macomber, and Jerry Mortimore. On May 4 Mrs. Engle also had her birthday. The boys and girls who have birthdays in the summer are John Marty, Patty McNeal, Patty Tasker, Emily Bolen, Kirk Wible, LeRoy Schmuck, Raymond Temple, Philip Wiemer, Joan Pfieffer, Keith Osburn, Billy Mathews, and Tom Patterson.

Jerry Pownall and Billy Mathews had perfect scores in the bicycle contest.

We were weighed and measured Monday. Our shortest pupil is Tom Patterson at 55 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches; our tallest is Gary Swartz at 71 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Our light weight is Jerry Mortimore at 74 $\frac{1}{2}$ pounds and the heaviest was Patty Young, who weighed 148 $\frac{1}{2}$ pounds.

--Nancy Newnam

Adj. 5

In our home room we are working on aluminum tooling.

In science we received new books. We are also experimenting.

Eight children from the adjusted 5 room entered the bicycle contest. John Stoeckley won first place, Jack Willson, Terry Shippy and Arlen Coney won second, and Tom Grubb third.

On our May Festival were many cowboy songs and three dances. We are learning many new songs in music class.

We are finishing our spelling books.

We are planning to have a picnic Wednesday noon.

--Babette Herendeen & Linda Oney

5-1

Eight from our room entered the bicycle contest.

We have three May birthdays. They are John Hedges, Danny Harley, and Ursula Hauenstein.

--Sue Kurtz & Joann Bender

5-2

We enjoyed taking part in the May Festival. We were glad to have our parents and friends hear us sing.

Jim Kurtz, Eddie Lower, Nancy Mapes, and Pam Reichart have May birthdays.

--Brenda Moreland & Linda Tucker

Adj. 4 (Miss Wall)

We have almost completed our travel around the world. We are visiting Mexico at the present time. Soon we shall be traveling on to Central and South America.

Bill Smith has joined our class. He comes to us from Kentucky.

We have been studying about moths and butterflies. Danny Diggins brought us a chrysalis. We are hoping it will soon change into a butterfly, at least before school is out.

Wayne Temple will soon be celebrating his birthday.

4-1 (Mrs. Leins)

Now our geography trip around the world takes us down the west coast of North America and South America then to New York and home.

Jerry Livengood's mother and his grandmother, Mrs. Thompson, visited us last Friday afternoon.

Tom Snellenbarger's mother and his little sister Kay visited us last Tuesday morning.

Tom Snellenbarger and Larry Swander have been neither tardy nor absent all year.

Mrs. Leins spent the weekend visiting at her former home, Carthage, Indiana.

4-2 (Miss Thompson)

We have only one May birthday, Robert Mapes.

On our geography trip around the world we went to South America and learned about a woman who lives farther south than anyone. She is the only surviving Indian of her tribe.

We have painted and we like it very much.

This week we may see about instruments that we might play in the band when we get bigger.

There are two boys who brought

GRADE NEWS

tadpoles and cocoons for us to study about in science.

We have an extra reading book to use for geography and reading.

--Melody Chrysler & Carol Borst

Adj. 3 (Mrs. Pray)

We have finished our reader. We each drew a picture of our favorite story in the last unit of our book.

In our "How Do We Know" book we are talking about plants.

We did have 12 words in spelling; now we have 13.

Carol, Jan, Anita, and Mike all had 100 in English.

There is only one 100 in citizenship left on the chart.

--Jan Jollief & Retha Davis

3-1 (Mrs. Campen)

Fifteen children in 3-1 have subscribed for the summer edition of My Weekly Reader.

Mitchell Parker brought his guinea pig to school to show the children.

Mrs. Metz and nine-months-old Michael visited our room April 28.

Paul Lichau reported on the Scout-O-Rama held at the Ft. Wayne Coliseum.

Stephen Shreve celebrated his birthday May 11 and his mother brought a big cake, some ice cream, bubble gum, and some balloons.

Mike Brunson's grandmother, Mrs. Smith of Garrett, died May 12 and we extend our sympathy to Mike and his family.

Rose Ann Wade brought Bobby, her parakeet, to school Friday. He kept flirting with the girls by whistling.

Mike and Marty Zeis, twins, celebrated their ninth birthday Friday. They brought treats for the children in the room.

3-2 (Mrs. Moses)

Rita Terry is the only person in our room who has been neither absent nor tardy for the whole year. Sherrill Krause has been absent for six weeks because of sickness. Marsha Henney had not missed a day until last week when she became ill with the mumps.

Jeffrey Green and David Hontz have not missed a spelling word for the entire year. Larry Axel and Steven Reith have only missed one word each during the year.

Friday the 13th was not an unlucky day for us. We had two birthday treats as Marty Zeis and Larry Axel had birthdays that day. Diane Hill invited all the girls of our room to a lovely birthday party at her home on Saturday.

We have completed most of our books and are now taking our reading tests.

Adj. 2-1 (Miss Kimmell)

Karen Tröwbridge and Tommy Riehm have 100% in spelling for the year. Mary Conklin, Susan King, and Rena Taylor have 100% for the semester.

We are sorry Jerry Brady was sick one-half day last week. Now we have no one with perfect attendance for the year.

The girls are winning the spelling contest again. Boys, another party?

We enjoyed singing in our music concert. Eight of our boys were dressed in Halloween costumes and acted out our Halloween songs. Eight girls were Valentines and acted out the Valentine song.

2-2 (Mrs. Flickinger)

We had perfect attendance in our room for one week.

We have finished our number books and taken them home.

Tommy Toy moved to Sandusky, Michigan.

Karen Mapes had a birthday this week. She brought a nice treat.

We had a nice Mother's Day program in our room. Nineteen of the mothers came, also nine sisters or brothers.

The Treasure Chest of Books is in our room. There are some very interesting and pretty books in it.

Adj. 1-2 (Mrs. Vanderbur)

It is almost time for our summer vacation and we hope to have a picnic at the lake before school is out.

Kenneth Nash left Friday with his family on a trip to Florida. We hope that he has a nice time.

We have covered all our basic work and feel that we are ready for second grade work next year.

1-1 (Mrs. Appleman)

Nancy Mustard, David Conklin, Wesley Bailey, and Cheryl McWhinney celebrated their seventh birthdays recently.

Chicken pox has invaded our room and our perfect attendance record has been shattered. Rebecca Hill is the lone survivor.

We are planning a trip to the public library and a picnic at the park for the last of the year's activities.

Mrs. Strater visited our room May 12.

We have a good reading record. Besides our pre-primers, we have read many primers and several first readers in our class work.

1-2 (Mrs. Stoeckley)

We finished our readers and reading workbooks last week and

GOLF TEAM HAS 9-2 RECORD

Kendallville's golf team, winners of nine out of eleven meets and second in the N.E.I.C. meet, has had a very busy month.

The Comets defeated Avilla 8 to 0 April 20. Bud Coleman was medalist with a score of 47. On April 26 they defeated Avilla 10 to 0 and Ligonier 9½ to ½ for their third and fourth straight wins. Ray Scott and Virgil Summers were medalists with 49's.

At Angola on May 3 the Comets won a close one 5½ to 4½ with Ed Kimmel the medalist with 46.

Garrett defeated K.H.S. May 5 at Garrett 9½ to ½ for the first defeat of the season. Severson of Garrett was the medalist with a 38. At Syracuse May 9 K.H.S. defeated Ligonier by a score of 8 to 0. Bud Coleman and Ed Kimmel were medalists with scores of 45.

Concordia was the next victim of the Comets, being defeated 7 to 1 at the local course. Coleman and Summers were medalists with 46's. The Comet golf-men were blanked for the first time when Garrett defeated them 10 to 0 for their second loss, both at the hands of the Railroaders.

The N.E.I.C. meet was held at the local course last Saturday. The Comets came in second behind Garrett, defeating Decatur, Concordia, Columbia City, and New Haven. Tad Schmidt of Garrett was the medalist with a score of 82 for 18 holes. Medals were given for the first five individual places. Ed Kimmel was best for K'ville but placed sixth.

In the season's final match at Ft. Wayne's Brockwood course with Concordia, the Comets won number nine to complete their season's record. They defeated the Cadets 4½ to 5½ with Kestoff of Concordia the medalist with 44.

GOLF TRACKMEN HAVE BUSY MONTH

With two big relays and the N.E.I.C. meet, plus the Sectional, the K.H.S. trackmen have been on the move.

In the Goshen relays the Comets scored 13½ points for a respectable showing. Bill Leamon took a third in the 100 yard dash, Duane Axel a fourth in the half-mile run, and John Moses a tie for third in the pole vault for the

BASEBALL TEAM HAS 3-4 RECORD

After winning their first game, the Comets lost four straight and then got back into the winning circle by defeating Concordia.

New Haven dealt K'ville their first loss, 7 to 3, at the local field. Ray Cloys held the Comets to four hits while his mates were getting 11 off Brown and Fifer.

New Haven: 2 0 0 2 2 0 1 7 1 3
K'ville: 2 1 0 0 0 0 0 3 4 1

The Comets' lost number two in a row as they traveled to Decatur and were defeated 8 to 3 on the four hit pitching of Hanchu. Comet walks and errors proved the difference as Tom Leamon and Jack Fifer limited the Yellowjackets to two hits.

K'ville: 0 2 0 0 0 0 1 3 4 3
Decatur: 4 3 0 0 1 0 X 8 2 5

Defending champion Bluffton nipped the Comets in a good game at the former's park 6 to 5. Bluffton used three pitchers who allowed eight hits while Brown went the distance for K.H.S. giving up 10 safeties. Uptgraft homered for Bluffton.

K'ville: 0 0 0 1 2 2 0 5 8 2
Bluffton: 2 0 1 0 3 0 X 6 10 0

Concordia's Cadets really mauled the Comets in what proved to be a farce as the home team proved a week later. K.H.S. errors along with timely hitting by the Cadets set the final score at 17 to 2. Tom Leamon pitched the last four innings, giving up two hits and no runs.

Concordia: 8 2 7 0 0 0 0 17 12 0
K'ville: 0 1 0 0 0 0 1 2 9 11

The Comets gained revenge for the Concordia drubbing by winning a good game from the Cadets 3 to 1 at McMillen Park in Ft. Wayne. Brown went all the way for the Comets, giving up five hits well scattered. McInking and Googlin were a little better in holding the Comets to four hits.

Concordia: 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 1 5 1

K'ville made it two straight by defeating Columbia City for the second time this season. The final score was 5 to 2 as Fifer pitched all the way, giving up five hits. Whetstone went the distance for the visitors and gave up only four hits, one a homer by Duane Axel.

C. City: 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 2 5 3 only individual point getters. The sprint relay team of Leamon, Axel, Gould, and Fifer scored a third in that event and the half-mile relay team with Leamon, Brown, Gould, and Fifer took another third to finish the Comet scoring.

At Kokomo, Kendallville scored about the same in getting a total of 13 points. Individually, Leamon scored a third in the 100 yard dash and Moses a third in the pole vault. A relay team composed of Axel, Brown, Hall, and Leamon scored twice. They picked up a second in the half-mile relay and a fourth in the 1500 yard relay. In the middle distance relay, Axel, Fifer, Heign, and Moses took a fifth.

May 4th the Comets traveled to Columbia City for the N.E.I.C. meet and didn't put on too good a showing. Bill Leamon came through with two seconds, in the 220 and 400 yard dashes, for a total of 8 points. Axel scored a fifth in the half-mile for 1 point and Moses a tie for third for 1½ points. This gave the Comets a total of 10½ points.

The Sectional meet was held at Elkhart a week ago today with Elkhart, Noble, LaGrange, and Steuben Counties entered. Kendallville qualified three men for the Regional meet being held at Fort Wayne this afternoon. Leamon was third in the 220 yard dash, Axel was fourth in the half-mile, and Moses second in the pole-vault.

married before we graduated."

"The hospital staff at Kendallville consists of several members of the class of '55. Ruby Barger is the head nurse and several of the other R. N.'s are Joyce Watson, Clarinda Robinson, and Nell Henney. One of the top surgeons there is Ralph Becker. Another member of our class who has entered a medical field is Larry Coffel, who has become a dentist."

"So many of the boys have become good mechanics and they now own the Kendallville Kar Clinic. The joint owners are Dan Bordner, Bob Danzer, Dave Walter, and Bill Young."

"Not too long ago I read in a Washington, D. C. newspaper that Marcia Ruderman is now running for a position as United States Senator. Another girl who has become quite famous is Ann Stoeckley, who is now on a tour of Europe as a world-famed chemical engineer."

"Say, Judy, whatever happened to Gean Edwards, Clayton Morr, and Carl Root?"

"Well, Carson, Clayton runs an aluminum foundry outside Kendallville, and Carl owns a 1,000 acre farm. Gean has worked his way up so now he is president of the Universal-Friction Company."

"Golly, Judy, the time has certainly passed quickly and if we don't hurry, we will miss our plane. Carson, it was swell talking to you and if you see any of our old classmates, say 'Hi' to them from Judy and me."

have taken the reading test.

Nancy Clark, Ronald Coleman, Mary Lou Conrad, Marilyn Gillespie, Steven Kastner, Pamela Lundy, Tommy Potts, and Robert Shanton have had birthdays.

We are planning to go to the park Monday or Tuesday noon for our end-of-school picnic.

John Parker had his tonsils out last Monday. Steven Kastner and Stanley Grey have been absent with the mumps.

1-3 (Mrs. White)

All the members of the 1-3's are joyfully planning for vacation.

Christine Gienger has won the reading contest for reading the most library books this semester. She was awarded a book as a prize.

We have completed 38 booklets of our own, decorated the covers, and taken them home to read to our parents.

Mary Lash Kendallville class of 1955 celebrates 50th reunion

KENDALLVILLE — Members of the Kendallville High School class of 1955 gathered July 23 for their 50th reunion.

The event was held at Cobblestone Golf Course Clubhouse and featured a social hour, dinner, a business meeting and reminiscing.

Craig Miller and Bill Heign served as masters of ceremonies. They recognized class officers, Ray Scott, president; Miller, vice president; Nelda (Berkes) Hoffman, secretary; and Carol (Eshelman) Austin, treasurer.

Guests included former teachers Lee Bushong, Dale Schinbeckler and Chet and Mary Curry. Office secretary Arlene Kurtz also attended.

Janet (Hockenbarger) Buffalow from California traveled the farthest and Doyne Perkins had the most grandchildren with 17.

Classmates voted to hold another reunion on July 24, 2010, and elected Ann (Stoeckley) Huffman and Rae (Pray) Wright as co-chairwomen for the event.

The 27 class members present decided to make a three-year $3,000 pledge to the Kendallville Public Library building project in lieu of individual memorials for classmates. The pledge will be eligible for the two for one Dekko Foundation matching grant.

The planning committee of chairman Terry Kurtz, Duane Hanes, Bill Heign, Ann Haffner, Craig Miller, Rae Wright, Jean (Kammerer) Huffman, Pat (Wymer) Easterday and Ray Scott was recognized.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
For thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

A Little Step Away
 To close the eye, to fall asleep,
 To draw a labored breath,
 To find release from daily cares
 In what we know as death...

Is this the crowning of a life,
 The aim or end thereof?
 The totaled sum of consciousness,
 The ripened fruit of love?

It cannot be, for works of God
 Are wrought for nobler ends,
 And those away continue on
 In the hearts of kin and friends.

It cannot be, for they live on
 A little step away.
 The soul, in the everlasting life,
 Has found a better day....

RS. MARJORIE SPRINGER DIES; RITES TUESDAY

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the A. J. Berhalter company funeral home for Mrs. Marjorie Springer, 37, lifelong Kendallville resident, who died at 9:15 p.m. Saturday in her home, 438 Diamond street, after an illness of one year.

The Rev. C. G. Yeomans of the First Methodist church, will officiate, with burial in Lakeview cemetery.

Wife of John Springer, she was born here July 28, 1911. Mrs. Springer attended the local schools and was a member of the First Methodist church. A young woman of pleasing personality, she had many friends.

Surviving besides the husband, are two sons, Jerry and James, at home; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schmuck, this city; eight sisters, Mrs. Nevin Cain, Mrs. Alfred McKean, Mrs. Franklin Shippy, Mrs. Lawrence Jackson, Mrs. Jay Munk and Mrs. Gene Fox, all of this city, and Mrs. Kenneth Brandt, Brimfield, and Mrs. Howard Grossman, Mishawaka, and one brother, Warren Schmuck, this city.

Incline Thine ear, O Lord, to our prayers with which we supplicate Thy mercy that Thou set free the soul of Thy servant which Thou hast commanded to pass from this world, to a region of peace and light and order that it be in the company of Thy saints. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

JOHN W. SPRINGER
1912 — 1972

O GENTLEST Heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on the soul of Thy departed servant. Be not severe in Thy judgement, but let some drops of Thy precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames, and do Thou, O merciful Saviour, send Thy Angels to conduct Thy departed servant to a place of refreshment, light and peace. Amen. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

He Only Takes The Best!

God saw she was getting tired,
A cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around her,
And whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes, we watched her suffer
And saw her fade away.
Although we loved her dearly,
We couldn't make her stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best!

Taken in 1946

Avilla resident Gene Cogan was D-Day survivor.

Gene Cogan, a friend of Jerry and Joyce Springer. The article is from the Kendallville Sun newspaper, May 28, 1994.

Memories vivid for survivor Gene Cogar

By MARLA SUTTO

Twenty-year-old Noble County native Gene Cogan had never been out of the Midwest when he was drafted as a private into the Army.

Fifty years later, Cogan recalls when he and his infantry division landed on Omaha Beach in Normandy, France on June 6, 1944. It was his introduction to the reality of combat as part of the 29th Infantry Division, Company B. He was a rifleman and first scout for his battalion.

Cogan's journey to that fateful day began when, five days after he was drafted, he left for basic training at Camp Walters, Texas, leaving his wife of just a few months, Joan, behind. Thirteen weeks later he was shipped to southern England where he spent a year preparing for the invasion.

During training the men were exposed to nerve gas that was "like being hit with a 2 by 4," Cogan said.

"It made you stop and recoil," he said. "but we learned the smell and we gained confidence in our gas masks."

The men in Cogan's squad, the first squad of the third platoon, were mostly from Hagerstown, Md. Eleven men served in a squad and there were three squads to a platoon. The men who shared a barracks spent seven days a week, 24 hours a day together and a closeness formed that is never repeated with any other group, Cogan said.

"Our division was more fortunate than many of the others because we got a dry landing, the gang plank went right on the beach," he said. "There was machine gun and mortar fire everywhere and everything was going on," Cogan said. "We were told in briefings our mission was to make it three miles inland the first day and to a certain point further inland every day after that. It took us three days to reach our first day's destination."

The invasion was first scheduled for June 5, Cogan said, but choppy, rough seas pushed it back one day. The channel wasn't much better on June 6, causing the ships to be a few miles off course. Another obstacle the men faced, which they were never briefed about, was heavily foliated hedgerows every 10 to 15 acres, where the Germans would entrench themselves, according to Cogan.

The first group was supposed to land at 6:30 a.m. and Cogan's company was about 1 1/2 hours behind the first wave.

"It's not easy to talk about even now. I lost so many good friends, my platoon sergeant, platoon leader, assistant scout - just so many. All we could do is hope the price we paid solved the problems. In some cases I believe it did. There was no question about the reason we were there and no doubt in anyone's mind that this had to be done, and the sooner the better. We must never allow a Holocaust again.

"At one point I was on a hill about 30 feet above the beach and I looked out over the channel. As far as I could see there were ships of every description and I remember thinking to myself, 'boy the American people have really come through for us.'"

"When we hit the beach we had our rifles and a light pack; our gas masks, rain gear, a blanket and K-rations. Some of the guys though, took out their gas masks and filled their pack with cigarettes. The first night we heard the Germans were using gas — it turned out to be wrong — but you never saw guys sicker than the ones without their masks."

As the fighting went on, every day felt like a lifetime, Cogan said. Twenty-five percent of Cogan's division lost their lives during the invasion and no one that Cogan knew came out uninjured.

"In movies they show someone get hit every once in a while, or even die, but people still don't realize that it happened to everyone," Cogan said.

Cogan himself was shot twice. After a year of treatment, he was sent home with one leg slightly shorter than the other. He doesn't like to talk about it.

"Historians and journalists have given the Normandy invasion a special place in the history of the war, but what we did was not any more special than what soldiers did in Africa or any where else. We were there to do a job.

I hate the term 'hero.' For every person that was labeled a hero there were thousands of other GIs who were just as deserving," Cogan said.

In the Army he met David Keil whom he became friends with and has stayed friends with to this day. Cogan and Keil and the other surviving members of their company will hold a 50th reunion in Hagerstown this summer.

"David and I have gotten together three times since the war, but we never talked about combat. It's a very personal thing," Cogan said.

After his discharge, Cogan worked at several jobs, but then was laid off. That's when he decided to use the GI Bill and became a social studies teacher. He later was an administrator at the Avilla School and served in the Indiana General Assembly.

"There's always a lot of dialog after you get home of, 'why me, why did I survive when so many didn't.' The way I coped with that was to try and make a contribution. I always wanted to be a teacher, even in high school, but I didn't have the money for college. The day I was laid off I drove to Indianapolis and the Veteran's Administration building and applied for the money. I went to Ball State Teachers College and got out in 3 1/2 years and I've never regretted that choice for one minute."

Cogan believes the celebration in Normandy is appropriate, but hopes that Germans are included in the ceremony to show how far the world has come since the invasion.

"I'm very proud to have been part of the invasion," Cogan said. "The war made me a more mature individual, and although I never talked about it much in class, it made me a better person and better teacher."

WINDOW on	NINTH STREET
1975	by James Kroemer

Next time you see Jerry Springer, ask to see the blisters on his hands. Jerry got the blisters by doing a major bit of yard work, not once, but twice.

The gas company came to the Springer home recently to do a little work of some kind, and after they were done, left a depression from their digging in the parking (the grass area between the sidewalk and street) in front of Jerry's house.

Jerry decided to get out the old shovel, and not just level the parking, but dig it out and replace the grass and dirt with bricks. A paved parking; not only attractive but very functional.

He worked the better part of a day excavating the parking, digging out all the dirt and grass, and leaving the area nice and level and ready for the bricks.

Never mind the backache and blisters, Jerry was pleased with his progress so far. Then it happened.

Before he had an opportunity to set the bricks in place, Jerry had to go out of town on business.

While he was away, an alert and efficient crew from the Auburn street department happened by and saw the parking in front of Jerry's house all dug out and lower than the sidewalk, curb and other parking in the area.

So they did what any conscientious street crew would do. They filled it up.

"You should have heard him when he got home," said his wife Joyce. But Jerry was undaunted. He dug out the parking again, only this time he put the bricks in right away.

"He hasn't done the other side yet, though," Joyce reported. "He's waiting till Saturday and hopes to get it all done in one day. He's afraid if he only does half of it, he'll come home to find it filled in again."

CHANGES IN SPECIAL TRAFFIC CONTROL MEASURES ON AREA ROADS AND STREETS>

Due to early arriving crowds, the special one-way traffic pattern is being moved up one hour by County and State Police (4.5 hours prior to kick off) on area roadways north and east of campus. City police will continue to implement "one-way" or special restrictions three and one-half hours prior to kick off on streets south of campus. This measure is necessary to prevent traffic back ups onto the Indiana Toll Road of fans arriving for the football games.

During inbound traffic, most roads leading to campus become one-way and motorists must follow directions of police officers. Access to campus lots is restricted to a special pass during the one-way traffic pattern.

Relay For Life

The Indiana's Governor's Council for People with Disabilities chose the "3rd Annual Disability Awareness Relay For Life Walk" in March for the annual Community Spirit Award! Last year they received an Award of Excellence for their effort. The award was issued on December 2nd & 3rd in Indianapolis. Stephanie Ray along with another Lakeland Teacher, student council members, and an American Cancer Society Representative attended the awards ceremony. We look forward to hearing about another GREAT event in March!

There's nothing like the sound of a bowling ball hurtling down the smooth and polished wooden lane, crashing into the ten pins at the end and sending them clattering! On Friday, November 14th, forty-seven students from 5 different NEISEC classes gathered at The Garrett Bowl for their 6th Annual tournament. AHS class won the event, DHS came in 2nd and students from CHOICE came in 3rd. GHS and DMS earned honorable mentions. See you next year!!

STRIKE!

Jerry and a student at the far right are bowling 2009

The CHOICE Program has been very busy this year. On November 18th they held an Open House that was a HUGE hit! Approximately 45 people attended. Most of the students have jobs or volunteer positions in place. The lower right picture shows Ashlyn Heller, Nicole Schieber, and Shayna Miller. The girls volunteered their time on October 1st, Cancer Day at Scotts, by bagging groceries and handing out cookies. The girls did a great job and had lots of fun as you can tell from the picture! The students in the CHOICE program decide what they want to do on Fridays and have went to some fun places including Cahoots Coffee Shop, DC Free Fall Fair, the park and garage sales.

The Legend of Austin Zolman and Jerry Springer

This is the legend of two very special people who eighty years ago perished in a fire at the Dekalb High School.

They were walking in the gym when a fire started. Some say that they ran as fast as they could to a fire alarm which Austin pulled. Some say that they ran around the school upstairs and down to save as many as they could.

Some of those people are still alive to this day and without exception they all say the same, Austin and Jerry saved the day.

It is said that if you go to the ruins of the school you will see crowds of people running, and if you look hard enough you will see Austin and Jerry telling people to run. When it was all said and the people realized what had happened was to save the lives other Austin and Jerry gave up their lives.

The end

Dear jerry,

I like you jerry .

Tuesday's choices

By Dave Kurtz

TV Guide recently quoted Walter Cronkite on the subject of elections: "Perhaps before we urge everyone to vote, we ought to urge everyone to learn."

We hope you have learned something from reading our election previews in the past two weeks. We have worked hard to interview every candidate in a contested race, giving each a fair opportunity to air his or her views.

If you've learned something, we hope you will use it by voting on Tuesday.

One thing is certain. Especially in Auburn, voters have a choice in this primary.

All but one of the present city council members has a primary opponent, so that Tuesday's election could be a referendum on the performance of the council.

There is a choice between candidates who want more firemen and those who don't. There is a choice between candidates who want more federal funds and those who staunchly oppose them.

If you are a Democrat, there is a choice you may not know about: a choice between two rival factions of the party. Therein lies a curious story.

Three of the four Democrat councilmen have opposition from their own party. In each case, Democrat Mayor Jack Sanders actively encouraged — perhaps even recruited — the candidates who are running against Jim Mason, Pete Muzzillo and Jerry Springer.

The three councilmen differed with Sanders on the issue of the fire department, which has hung like a cloud over the council for three years. Coincidence or not, Tilson King, who agreed with Sanders on the fire department, does not have a primary opponent.

A few weeks ago, the deep split within the party was bared for all to see. A party newsletter was sent to local Democrat voters. Inside was a flattering personality profile on every Democratic candidate — except Mason, Muzzillo and Springer. They were brushed off in a short sentence which merely noted that they were also candidates.

A further snub was the newsletter's statement that all the candidates profiled (excluding Mason, Muzzillo and Springer) had asked for and received the support of the party. The trio claims that at least one of their rival candidates admits he never asked for the endorsement which the newsletter gave.

The three incumbents are still smarting from the blow, which comes only four years after Mason and Muzzillo helped the Democrats break a Republican stranglehold on City Hall.

Now, they find themselves the party's unwanted mavericks, while the party's newsletter supports a slate that appears to be hand-picked by Sanders.

Sanders' candidates, Merry Crager, Robert Detrick and "Pete" Good, are all good people, and would probably make fine city council members if they win.

Still, the whole affair makes the latest edition of the Democrat newsletter laughable when it piously preaches: "We are not in competition with each other... inter party competition breeds unrest... we compete with other political parties..."

Councilmen Mason, Springer explain Scott's vote

ment that they expected to do between $120,000 and $130,000 per week in business and not hurt existing business in town because that much business is leaving Auburn and shopping elsewhere. Do the citizens of Auburn believe that? — I didn't.

Scott's said that they would employ the total of 80 people and would add to Auburn's economy by $500,000. I work in a grocery store and have for years, so I feel I know what I'm talking about. I know how many people it takes to run a store of that size. Almost if not all the full time people would be brought out of Fort Wayne to run the key positions in the store and their paychecks would go back to Fort Wayne. The rest of the people hired would be part-time help which would have little effect on the Auburn economy.

The Auburn development commission found that 1,000 people were unemployed in DeKalb County. These people will benefit little or nothing with employment in this new store.

According to some, the government gives these bonds and supposedly it costs no one anything.

Well, here are some things I think it will cost Auburn, not just in money, but in ourselves.

There is no one organization, city or county, civic group, church group, school, lodges or any others that haven't received private contributions needed to exist.

Many of the contributions these groups have received have been from these Auburn Store Owners for the past 15 to 25 years, in the amount of many thousands of dollars. In short, practically everybody in this community and county have benefited somehow from their generosity.

Nobody more than I wants Auburn to grow and prosper. But is it necessary to grow so much that we have forgotten these business people who have given Auburn so much?

I would like the people of Auburn to know that we did not deny Scott's permission to come to Auburn, only the unfair advantage they would be getting with the bonds.

I personally felt that with these facts, I would like the people of Auburn to know why I made my decision, even though it might hurt my election bid, at least I can live with myself.

If Scott's really wants to come to Auburn, the bond issue won't stop them. I'm sure the interest rate charged the Auburn businesses years ago, when they started business, looked just as big as the interest Scott's would have to pay if not granted these bonds.

I feel certain that if everybody would reflect on the good these businesses have done for Auburn, they would agree that we five councilmen made the only honest decision that could be made.

In these days of minority groups creating dissension, let's let the majority have their way for once.

Jerry Springer

To the Editor:

I am writing this letter in defense of my action at the council meeting of September 4th and also in the defense of the store owners involved in the dispute over allowing Scott's to come to Auburn with economic development bonds.

Economic Development Bonds were originally made available for business expansion, employment and for new business as long as they did not create hardship on any business of the same kind.

Scott's made the quite farfetched state-

Following are two "letters to the editor" written by Auburn City Councilmen in defense of their vote on Scott's food store. Last Tuesday, the council refused to grant low-interest economic development bonds for a proposed Scott's store in Auburn.

To the Editor,

First of all I want to set all records straight about my involvement in starting a Convenience Store on Auburn's east side. I am involved and have been since early this year. In January of 1979 the idea was conceived, long before Mr. Scott and his company had decided to come to Auburn. I also want to set the record straight about my feeling toward Scott's, which by the way would not effect our efforts on the east side of town. I think the people of Auburn should hear some of the facts about Economic Development Loans and what they really are.

Economic Development Loans are not government moneys as many of our people of Auburn believe. The actual money involved is money raised through the sale of bonds usually in denominations of $5,000 to $20,000. These bonds are sold to banks, or to private investors anywhere on the open bond market. All interest collected by the investors is free from Federal, State and Local tax. Since the interest on these bonds is tax free they can be issued at a lesser rate and become very attractive to private investors.

The interest difference between a conventional loan and an economic development loan is 4.0 percent to 5.0 percent to the borrower. This means that if you want to add on to your house or buy a new home you must pay 4.0 to 5.0 percent more than Mr. Scott. Now it seems to me that a company the size of Scott's with nine supermarkets is more capable of a 13 percent interest rate than a person adding on to his home. However you or I as taxpayers and citizens of Auburn can not qualify for this special interest rate to buy a home. Ask yourself this question. Is this right and fair? Today banks and loaning institutions are paying 9.75 percent on savings. If I can borrow at 8.5 percent doesn't it make good sense to leave your money in the bank?

One of the comments which was made by a Scott's representative at the council meeting was the fact that they are very "anxious to serve the people of Auburn and that Auburn is such a thriving community." Also that "Auburn was their choice over several other locations." I agree with these comments or I wouldn't live here. Since our city is thriving and our potential is so good any good business man would look to Auburn for his business. Ask yourself this question. Why would a company the size of Scott's not move here regardless of what the interest rate is? Surely Scott's can acquire a conventional loan for the sum of money needed. Yet after the council denied the bond issue the comment made to the council was "we will locate elsewhere." Was there a true concern for Auburn on the part of Scott's or was it for the Scott's company and Mr. Dickman alone?

One of the Fort Wayne newspapers carries a price comparison of all supermarkets in Fort Wayne usually once a week. If you would watch and check this comparison you will find that one of the supermarkets already here in Auburn is consistently lower on more than 50 percent of their items. I have heard many times about the coupon program offered by Scott's so we asked Mr. Scott how this worked. It seems our local media people lost his pencil during this conversation since it did not reach the paper. However Mr. Scott indicated that there is a minimum purchase required for these coupons and that this minimum applies to each coupon. This is merely an example, but if you have three coupons with a minimum purchase of $10 on each you would have to purchase $30 of merchandise to use all three of your coupons.

I believe that the responsibility of the City Council is to do what they feel is best for the taxpayers of the city, this means all taxpayers. Everyone talks about competition and the fact our existing supermarkets are afraid of that. I don't believe our supermarket people are afraid, they only want everything to be equal. If you want to talk about competition think about interest rates for you and I and what they could be for Scott's under bond is Comments have been made that the existing supermarkets did not have to pay such high rates when they started. However you were not paying $2.00 for hamburger then either. The margin for operation of a supermarket 20 years ago and today is basically the same. Most supermarkets operate on about 1.0 to 1.5 percent profit.

In conclusion I would like to state my opinions on this issue have been weighed very carefully and I feel that if Scott's have a true interest in the city of Auburn they will make every effort to locate here even without an economic development bond issue. I only hope that some of the people of Auburn will stop to think about this issue and what it really stands for before passing judgment.

Hi Jerry and Joyce,

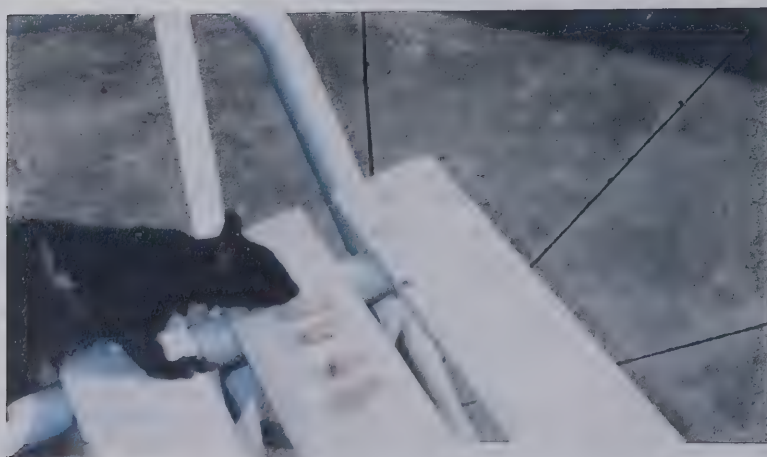

I am so glad to hear that Ralphie is doing well! It won't be long before he has his 1st birthday on June 11. Thought you might want to know that Ralphie was born at 5:10 pm and he weighed 6 ounces at birth. I was looking at the puppy records and thought that might be kind of neat for you to know.

Take care,
